TROOPS RUSHED BY RUSSIA TO AID THE TURKS

KEMAL REPORTED MARCHING AGAINST BRITISH ON STRAITS; FRANCE AND ITALY REFUSE AID

Bolshevik Cross Dniester River Into Roumania, and Fight With Guards.

BATTLE IN PROGRESS.

British Intrenched at Chanak Menaced by Kemalists Few Miles Away.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A report comes from Constantinople that several large bands of armed Bolsheviks crossed the Dniester River under cover of darkness Saturday night and intrenched themselves in positions on the right bank, in territory ceded to Roumania by the Treaty of Versailles. When the invasion was discovered Sunday morning Roumanian border guards hurried to the river and attempted to dislodge the intruders. The Bolsheviks, aided by reinforcements, fought fiercely. The battle is still on.

The Dniester River marks the border line between Russia and Roumania.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19 (United Press).—Mustapha Kemal's march toward the Dardanelles and Constantinople is reported to have started.

The Turkish commander, according to these reports, is moving troops from Smyrna toward the Bosphorus (which lies between Constantinople and the mainland of Asia) and the Dardanelles, where British are intrenched.

There is no official verification of these rumors.

Kemalist cavalry patrolled in the vicinity of Chanak, which commands the entrance to the neutral zone of the Dardanelles, as the Royal Sussex Regiment landed to reinforce the British, who are already in the trenches.

The Kemalists have made no attempt as yet to cross into the neutral zone. Col. Shuttleworth, in command of the district, expressed confidence in the ability to repulse any forces Mustapha Kemal would be able to concentrate within the next few days.

KEMAL ASKS ALLIES PERMISSION TO OCCUPY THRACE

Says Neutral Zone and Constantinople Status Can Be Fixed Later.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19 (Associated Press).—Mustapha Kemal Pasha, leader of the Turkish Nationalists, has requested the Allies to permit his army to occupy Thrace, insisting that the Dardanelles question can be discussed later, with all the Black Sea countries participating.

Permission to send vessels to Smyrna to take off the Christian refugees has been granted by Kemal to the Allied powers, the United States and Greece. Males between the ages of fifteen and forty-five, however, are exempted, and it is presumed the Nationalists intend to use them for military purposes.

Ten thousand Italians and 12,000 French were evacuated from the city yesterday.

426 PASSENGERS ON PRES. ADAMS IN STATE OF MUTINY

Wireless Twice From Quarantine for the Presence of Police Boat.

STARTED BY GERMANS.

They Refused to Be Taken to Hoffman Island for Treatment of Health Authorities.

Rioting said to be of serious proportions occurred to-day among 426 steerage passengers aboard the steamship President Adams, operated for the United States Shipping Board by the United States Lines, which arrived at Quarantine at 6 o'clock this morning. It was learned this afternoon as the result of two radio messages to Police Headquarters calling for policemen. The Police Boat Manhattan was rushed to the assistance of the officers and crew of the ship.

The trouble originated when doctors of the United States Health Service ordered the removal to Hoffman Island of all steerage passengers after signs of them had been found to be vermin infested. Besides these passengers, there are 140 first class passengers aboard.

In the steerage are about 200 Germans who had booked passage on the George Washington, of the same line, but who were not taken aboard at Hamburg. They were transported to Plymouth by special boat and placed aboard the President Adams. For the most part, the remaining 136 are Irish.

It was said that a number of Germans were the first to rebel, and a greater part of those in the steerage followed suit. Capt. J. Tendeberg and other officers and members of the crew attempted to reason with the passengers, but they insisted they would refuse to go to Hoffman Island. Then the Captain wired to Police Headquarters in Manhattan.

"Send police boat at once to the steamship President Adams at Quarantine."

The Manhattan was rushed off immediately, and about twenty minutes later another message came, which asked:

"Is police boat on way?"

Details of the rioting had not reached police headquarters an hour afterward.

E. S. CONSL. SEIZES SHIP AT CONSTANTINOPLE FOR DEBTS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19.—The steamship New York, of Greek ownership, but flying the American flag, has been seized by the American Consul General here for non-payment of bills aggregating $60,000.

Then you will awaken on Eastern standard time.

Also you will gain one hour's sleep.

NEEDLE REMOVED NEAR BOY'S HEART AND HIS LIFE SAVED

Honor Pupil Undergoes Extraordinary Operation in Roosevelt Hospital.

LUNGS GOOD AS EVER.

One "Collapsed," Now Both Are Functioning—Youth a Great Favorite.

Saved from death by an operation in which part of a needle was removed from the pleural cavity, a hair's width from the heart, William Constable, twelve, of No. 246 West 49th Street, a special scholarship student of the Ethical Culture School, was to-day discharged as cured from Roosevelt Hospital.

The lad, a great favorite in the vicinity of his home and known as "Dimple Willie," had endeavored himself to the nurse of the hospital where he had been a patient since Sept. 6, and was showered with kisses when he started home to-day, accompanied by his mother, Elvora, a widow of a printer.

The boy on Sept. 6 was on his way with some chums to Central Park on an auto truck, a kindly driver having given them a lift. When the driver was obliged to make a turn out of their route, the boys started to get off. As William was getting off, a needle which he had picked up on the street, planning to bring it home to his mother, became imbedded in his chest.

He was unable to stand up when he reached the ground and his chums called a passing automobilist and asked him to take the boy to a hospital. The boy was admitted to Roosevelt Hospital and the next day he operation to remove the greater part of the needle was performed under the direction of Dr. Henry W. Lawrence, No. 51 East 56th Street.

To-day, when he was discharged, however, both his lungs were functioning correctly and he was none the worse for his experience.

PROGRESSIVE FINES FOR HOOD SELLERS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—Violated law violations will cost $150 each for the pentest, Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe of the United States District Court announced in substance from his bench. To get the $150 fine, which is the lowest his new system provides, the violator must plead guilty at first arraignment.

The penalties mount with the length of time the violator fights off judgment, and jail sentences are added to the fines. Judge Bledsoe hopes thus to keep his liquor docket clear.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCullough Turner, Wealthy Widow, Announces Her Marriage to Elmer G. Johnson, Employed as Auto Driver.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Sept. 19.—It became known to-day that Mrs. Elizabeth McCullough Turner, daughter of the late Gov. J. McCullough, who was at one time President of the Erie Railroad, was married yesterday to Elmer G. Johnson, who had been employed as a chauffeur.

Mrs. Johnson was the widow of Thornton Turner. She is one of two children who will inherit a fortune estimated at $10,000,000 left by her father.

MRS. TIERNAN SOBS ON STAND "POULIN IS BABY'S FATHER"

Notre Dame Professor's Wife Tells of Love Affair Till She Collapses.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 19.—Hundreds crowded the tiny Council Chamber here to-day for the resumption of testimony in the Poulin-Tiernan paternity suit.

Mrs. Augusta Tiernan, wife of John Tiernan, Notre Dame professor, was to continue her story of her infatuation for and conquest by Harry Poulin, who she says is the father of her nine-months-old boy.

Mobs fought for a place in the Council Chamber when the case opened and police squads were called out to quiet those who failed to gain admittance.

Mrs. Tiernan, chic and pretty in a blue fur-trimmed suit, told her story between sobs.

"Who is the father of that baby?" the State Attorney demanded.

"Harry Poulin," Mrs. Tiernan replied, with only a slight quiver in her voice.

Mrs. Tiernan told of her early meetings with Poulin and how they gradually fell in love with each other.

"Then one Sunday he took me to his store and made love to me. And—and—" Mrs. Tiernan wept.

"Later when I told him I was about to become a mother, he swore he would stick to me. He made me promise I would forego my wife duties to my husband. I did."

"There was never a doubt as to who the child belonged to. When we first learned I was in a delicate condition, he wanted me to seek medical aid but I refused."

"He promised to send me a big bouquet of roses when the baby was born. They never came."

"Then he spurned me one day at church and I told John."

Mrs. Tiernan collapsed shortly after and was assisted to her home.

During the session Poulin sat, apparently indifferent to the testimony, a few feet from Prof. Tiernan, who showed great solicitude for his wife.

Mrs. Poulin stood in the rear of the room and only once showed any sign of emotion.

SIXTEEN KILLED IN ATTACK ON IRISH REBELS IN RETREAT

Gen. Neary, Captured, Overpowers His Guard and Makes Escape.

BELFANT, Sept. 19 (Associated Press).—Ten Republicans and six Nationalists were shot dead in a fierce conflict at Erris, in Northern County Mayo, when the Republicans, retreating from Ballina, were attacked by Government troops.

The military were at a disadvantage in that they had no machine guns and they suffered severely in the earlier stages of the fight. Later their accurate marksmanship took a heavy toll from the Republicans.

Brig. Gen. Neary, with a small party, was cut off from the main body and captured, but overpowered his guard and escaped. The commander of the troops narrowly avoided capture.

Three Nationalists and one Republican were killed and others wounded when a small party of troops was ambushed in County Tipperary Sunday morning.

A massed attack by the Republicans on Rathkeale, County Limerick, resulted in the capture of the Court House, which was set on fire by its garrison. One of the Nationalists lost his life in the fire.

Last night a bomb, weighing over 100 pounds, was found in Manohamilton, the largest town in North Leitrim. The bomb was in charge of four men, whom the National troop arrested. A plot was discovered late to blow up the town, it was said.

BEER REFERENDUM ORDERED IN OHIO

State Supreme Court Puts Amendment on Ballot.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 19.—Ohio will vote at the November election on a State constitutional amendment to legalize the manufacture and sale of light wine and beer.

The State Supreme Court to-day ordered Secretary of State Smith to place the proposed on the ballot in a mandamus action brought by the Association Opposed to Prohibition, sponsors of the amendment, after the Secretary had refused to certify the amendment for a vote.

The Anti-Saloon League will appeal to the United States Supreme Court. The Secretary of State had refused to enter the proposed amendment on the ballot on the ground that, if adopted, it would be without effect, in view of the operation of the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Laws and would only entail an expense upon the State in submitting it to the voters.

The court, by a five to two vote, held the Secretary of State was without authority to bar the proposal from the ballot if petitioners asking for its submission to a vote were valid. Validity of the petition had not been questioned.

HARVARD ASKING RACE OF STUDENTS

But Denies Discrimination in New Questionnaire.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 19.—Harvard University is seeking definite knowledge of the racial antecedents of all its students through a questionnaire being submitted to all candidates for entrance this year, it was learned to-day. Students are requested to answer in "detail."

College authorities emphatically denied the new questions indicated race discrimination in any way. The questionnaire will not affect the work of the faculty committee which is investigating limitation of enrollment.

"KNOW WHO KILLED THEM, WHY THEY WERE KILLED," SAYS JERSEY PROSECUTOR

Arrest of Man Ordered as Soon as Slain Choir Singer Is Buried—Every Member of Murdered Preacher's Household Questioned After Bridge Tender Tells of Hearing Women's Voices Just Before Shots.

(Special from a staff correspondent of The Evening World.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 19.—James Mills, sexton of the Church of St. John the Evangelist whose wife was found dead with the rector the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall on a disused farm last Saturday was called from his wife's newly closed grave in Van Liew cemetery this afternoon and taken before Public Prosecutor Strickler. He had with him his sixteen years old daughter, Charlotte.

It was the second time to-day Mills was taken to the courthouse to be questioned. The authorities would not indicate the lines along which he was to be examined, but admitted that after he was excused to-day to go to the funeral detectives accompanied him and remained near him during the services.

DAUGHTER OF SLAIN SINGER, WHO HAS BEEN QUESTIONED

Mrs. Hall, the widow and all the members of her household including the chauffeur, gardener, maid and cook were also questioned at different times.

During the forenoon Assistant Prosecutor John Toolan made the official announcement that there would be an arrest before night and said detectives were already on the streets with orders to arrest a man against whom a charge of information and belief that he was implicated in the murder was to be made.

As the day wore on Mr. Strickler and Prosecutor Beckman of Somerset County doubted that an arrest would be made to-day.

There was some momentary excitement about the court house to-day regarding the finding of a cheap handkerchief in a lane twenty feet from the spot where the body was found. It was smudged as though by powder marks and was faintly stained with red. There were a number of holes in the corners such as might have been made by a bullet fired through its folds. The stains were believed to have been caused by the red mud of the lane. The handkerchief was found imbedded in the soil by rain and as it has not rained near here since Thursday this fact diminished its value as a clue.

Justice Parker took notice of the murders in his charge to the members of the Somerset County Grand Jury to-day. He instructed them that if the rector and the choir leader had been shot in Somerset County or had died in Somerset County after having been shot in Middlesex, it was the duty of the Grand Jury to ask. He referred to the tragedy as "an atrocious crime, or murder, believed to have been committed in Somerset County."

A similar instruction was given to the Middlesex Grand Jurors by Justice James J. Bergen with the admonition to keep informed as to the case.

While the examination of the persons of the Hall household were in progress, the funeral services over Mrs. Mills were being conducted by the Rev. Canon Samuel Wells of Trebton at Hubbard's undertaking parlors.

The funeral of the murdered woman was in striking contrast to that of the rector yesterday, which was attended by representatives of all the leading families in New

GIRL TRIES TO DIE ON CITY FERRYBOAT

Miss Helen McLaughlin Swallows Iodine on Way to Staten Island.

Declaring that she did not care to live any longer, Miss Helen McLaughlin, seventeen, of No. 23 Goerck Street, a telephone operator employed by the New York Telephone Company, attempted suicide this morning by swallowing the contents of a bottle of iodine on the Municipal Ferryboat Manhattan while on the way to Staten Island. The girl was taken to the Staten Island Hospital at St. George, where it was said her condition is serious.

When the boat was near St. George a woman heard means and found the girl with an empty iodine bottle and with discolored lips.

Policeman Otto Hanish asked the girl why she did it. "Oh, I just don't want to live any longer," she said.
